1. Introduction

The European Commission (hereafter ‘the Commission’) is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation PUBSY (JRC Outputs Management System and Related Websites) undertaken by JRC / Directorate Knowledge Management / Unit Knowledge Management Methodologies, Communities and Dissemination is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: the JRC / Directorate Knowledge Management / Unit Knowledge Management Methodologies, Communities and Dissemination collects and uses your personal information to:

- keep track of the life cycle of JRC scientific publications, from conception to publication, preserving both a full-text digital copy and bibliographic information, plus reference to R/D programs and collaborating entities in JRC or Commission-wide, plus trace of the approval/review/authorisation from the hierarchy.
- make freely available to the general public the results of research carried out by JRC, unless other limitations exist (e.g., security markings, internal use)
- track how users navigate the site for the purpose of reporting and improvement of the systems.
- check a publication’s citations with external service providers (Altmetrics, Elsevier etc.) and display the results
- extract a publication’s meta-data in a formatted way (BibTex) to be used elsewhere

Your personal data will not be used for an automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

We process your personal data, because:

(a) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body;

(b) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.
4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

In order to carry out this processing operation the JRC / Directorate Knowledge Management / Unit Knowledge Management Methodologies, Communities and Dissemination collects the following categories of personal data:

- Commission Staff (current situation plus historical information):
  - personnel number,
  - surname, and first name(s),
  - userid,
  - email,
  - roles,
  - JRC site place of work
  - contract type and
  - ORCID (https://orcid.org/)
  - SCOPUS ID (https://www.scopus.com)

- Organisational data:
  - Directorate-General (if non-JRC),
  - Directorate,
  - Department,
  - Unit and
  - Sector.

- System-related data: Userid.

All of this information is gathered from SYSPER COMREF via DATAPOOL.

- Co-authors of publications who are external to the Commission:
  - Name, surname,
  - Affiliation,
  - ORCID (https://orcid.org/),
  - SCOPUS ID (https://www.scopus.com)

They appear in the as-published, full-text digital version of the publication. Information on co-authors external to the Commission is gathered from PUBSY (affiliations).

- All data subjects:
  - contact details (e.g. phone number, email address, postal address, ORCID)
  - pictures and other personal data that the authors may have given in the as-published, full text digital version of the publication.

- Data about the utilisation of the JRC Publications Repository:
  - IP address (first two octets only) of the device through which the JRC Publications Repository was accessed.

The provision of personal data is mandatory to publish your work. If you do not provide your personal data, it will not be possible to approve and publish the output you are submitting.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing indefinitely.
6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Commission. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to the Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures in place. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to authorised staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

The recipients of your personal data are the internal stakeholders involved in the workflow. Recipients of the processing are the actors involved: applicant, JRC staff co-authoring the publication, Head of Unit, Director, various directorates, JRC Publications officers and their delegates.

The general public is recipient of the as-published, full-text digital version of the publication and related bibliographic information.

What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a ‘data subject’ under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) on grounds relating to your particular situation.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.
8. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller, JRC / Directorate Knowledge Management / Unit Knowledge Management Methodologies, Communities and Dissemination (JRC-H2-PERSONAL-DATA@ec.europa.eu).

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the Data Controller.

9. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register.

This specific processing operation has been included in the DPO’s public register with the following Record reference: DPR-EC-00234.
